Mission Statement

Stephen's mission is to offer legal solutions for many legal problems for most people – with the aim to help specifically folks in the Churubusco area.

In addition to assisting through his private practice, Stephen does offer to speak on matters involving Family Law, Elder Law (including Medicaid Planning), and Immigration law.

Stephen is a Board Member of the Churubusco Chamber of Commerce.

About your attorney...

- Litigation. Stephen has litigated cases in federal and state courts as well as in administrative proceedings, and he uses this experience to assist clients with Medicaid Planning/Elder Law issues, Immigration, Civil and Family Law matters.
- Background. Prior to opening his own practice in April of 2010, Stephen had been partner/owner since June 2007 with the Fort Wayne/New Haven law firm of Van Gilder & Trzynka, P.C., after having been an associate there since March 2002. Before private practice, Stephen worked for the State of Indiana for nine (9) years, the last four (4) of which he primarily served as attorney for Allen County's Child Protective Services and for the local Medicaid office.
- Personally. Stephen graduated from Snider High School, IU-Bloomington, and the University of Michigan Law School in Ann Arbor. He and his wife, Deborah, are parents of a daughter and son. The Griebels attend Sugar Grove Church of God and enjoy the Churubusco community.
